~~§42-18-12, §42-18-10. Contested Case Hearings~~ Notices of Hearing; Service of Notices of Hearing; Cease and Desist Order Hearings; Disciplinary Hearings; Contested Case Hearings; Appeals.

~~12.1. Any person entitled to a contested case hearing under the laws and rules of the board shall be entitled to each of the following:~~

~~(a) written notice at least ten (10) days in advance which sets forth the date, time, and place of the hearing, as well as a short and plain statement of the matters in issue;~~

~~(b) an opportunity at the hearing to present testimony, other evidence, and argument with respect to the matters and issues involved;~~

~~(c) an opportunity at the hearing to cross examine any witness providing testimony, and to present rebuttal evidence; and~~

~~(d) the assistance of an attorney duly qualified to practice in the State of West Virginia.~~

~~12.2. All testimony at a contested case hearing shall be reported by stenographic notes and characters or by other mechanical or electrical means. The Board shall prepare an official record, which shall include a transcript of the testimony and all exhibits admitted into evidence. Any person participating in the hearing shall be entitled to a copy of the record, including the transcript, at his or her own expense.~~

~~12.3. Contested case hearings may be conducted as part of any regular or special meeting of the Board. Alternatively, at the Board's discretion, a hearing examiner may be appointed by the Board to preside at a contested case hearing. A hearing examiner shall be empowered to administer oaths and affirmations, to examine witnesses under oath, to rule on evidentiary questions, to hold conferences for the settlement or simplification of issues by consent of the Board and the persons participating in the contested case hearing, and to otherwise conduct hearings as provided for herein. The function of the hearing examiner is to preside at the hearing and to cause a record to be prepared so that the Board can discharge its functions. The hearing examiner shall prepare recommended findings of fact and conclusions of law for submission to the Board.~~

~~12.4. The rules of evidence as applied in civil cases in the circuit courts of West Virginia shall be followed.~~

~~12.5. Contested case hearings may be continued from one day to another upon a showing of good cause. The Board shall rule on all such motions for a continuance.~~

~~12.6. Evidentiary depositions may be taken and read into evidence as in civil actions in the circuit courts of West Virginia.~~

~~12.7. Any person participating in a contested case hearing may submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law within twenty (20) days of the conclusion of such hearing, or from the date the final transcript is available, whichever is later.~~

~~12.8. A final order adjudicating a contested case hearing shall be issued in writing by the Board within forty five (45) days following the submission of all documents and materials necessary for the proper disposition of the case, including transcripts, proposed or recommended findings of fact, and proposed or~~

~~recommended conclusions of law. The final order shall be accompanied by the Board's findings of fact and conclusions of law.~~

~~12.9. At all contested case hearings, the Board shall be deemed a participant and shall have the right to be represented by an attorney duly qualified to practice in the State of West Virginia, to present testimony and other evidence, and to exercise all other rights granted herein. Members of the Board and its officers, agents, and employees shall be competent to testify at a contested case hearing; provided, that no Board member, officer, or agent who testifies at a hearing shall thereafter participate in deliberations or decisions of the Board with respect to the case in which he or she so testified.~~

~~12.10. The requirements and procedures outlined in W. Va. Code §29A-5-1, §29A-5-2, and §29A-5-3 shall at all times govern the Board's contested case hearings.~~

10.1. The Board shall hold a hearing during its regularly scheduled meeting, or during a special or an emergency meeting, on all cease and desist orders issued, shall vote on whether to affirm or rescind the cease and desist order, and shall vote on the amount of the penalty to be imposed, if any.

10.1.1. The Board shall issue a written notice of hearing to each person who has been issued a cease and desist order at least 10 days prior to the date of the hearing.

10.1.2. The Board shall cause the notice of hearing to be served by email, by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by personal service.

10.1.3. A person who has been issued a cease and desist order has a right to attend the hearing in person, to be represented by an attorney at law licensed to practice in West Virginia, or to submit a written response to the Board for its consideration, and may offer testimony and submit relevant factual information.

10.1.4. Provided that the person to whom a cease and desist order has been issued receives proper notice of the hearing, the person's failure to attend the hearing shall not preclude the Board from taking action on the cease and desist order.

10.1.5. After a hearing on a cease and desist order, the Board may issue a reprimand or assess a monetary penalty.

10.1.6. In considering whether to assess a monetary penalty and the amount of the penalty, the Board may consider whether a person has been previously issued a cease and desist order, whether the cease and desist order was issued based on a complaint from a consumer, or any other facts and circumstances that the Board considers relevant.

10.1.7. The Board shall issue a written order setting forth its decision on the cease and desist order.

10.1.8. Within 30 days of receipt of the Board's order, any person adversely affected by the Board's order may appeal the order to the Intermediate Court of Appeals as provided in W. Va. Code §51-11-1 et seq.

10.2. When a licensee is alleged to have engaged in conduct that is a ground for discipline as set forth in W. Va. Code §21-9-12, §21-9-12a, or W. Va. Code St. R. §42-19-14.1, the Board shall hold a disciplinary hearing during its regularly scheduled meeting, or during a special or an emergency meeting.

10.2.1. The Board shall issue a written notice of hearing to a licensee who is alleged to have engaged in one or more of the Act's grounds for discipline at least 10 days prior to the date of the hearing.

10.2.2. The Board shall cause the notice of hearing to be served on the licensee by email, by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by personal service.

10.2.3. A licensee has a right to attend the hearing in person, to be represented by an attorney at law licensed to practice in West Virginia, or to submit a written response to the Board for its consideration, and may offer testimony and submit relevant factual information.

10.2.4. Provided that the licensee receives proper notice of the hearing, the licensee's failure to attend the hearing shall not preclude the Board from taking action against the licensee.

10.2.5. The Board shall consider the facts and circumstances of the licensee's conduct and any other information that the Board considers relevant, including the licensee's previous disciplinary history, if any, with the Board.

10.2.6. If the Board finds that the licensee has engaged in the prohibited conduct, the Board shall vote on the disciplinary action to be imposed on the licensee.

10.2.7. The Board shall issue a written order to the licensee, setting forth its decision on the disciplinary action to be imposed.

10.3. Within 60 days of receipt of the Board's disciplinary order, a licensee may submit a written appeal to the Board, stating the reasons or grounds for contesting the Board's order.

10.3.1. The Board may conduct the appeal hearing or may appoint a hearing examiner to conduct the appeal hearing.

10.3.2. The Board or hearing examiner shall conduct the hearing pursuant to W. Va. Code §29A-5-1 et seq.

10.3.3. The Board or hearing examiner shall provide written notice of hearing to the licensee, setting forth the date, time, and place of the hearing.

10.3.4. The Board shall cause the notice of hearing to be served on the licensee by email, by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by personal service.

10.3.5. The hearing shall take place within 30 days of receipt of the licensee's appeal, unless the time frame is waived by agreement of the parties.

10.3.6. The Board shall be responsible for the preparation of an official record of the hearing, which shall include all testimony and exhibits.

10.3.6.a. The Board may engage a court reporter to make a record of the hearing.

10.3.6.b. Upon request to the Board by any party involved in the hearing, a copy of the transcript and exhibits shall be furnished to the requesting party at the requesting party's expense.

10.3.7. The Board and the licensee may be represented by an attorney at law licensed to practice in West Virginia, and may offer testimony and exhibits.

10.3.8. The Board shall issue a final order to the licensee concerning the appeal.

10.3.9. Within 30 days of receipt of the Board's order, a person adversely affected may file an appeal to the Intermediate Court of Appeals as provided in W. Va. Code §51-11-1 et seq.

~~§42-18-13. Appeals.~~

~~13.1. An appeal from any final order entered by the Board in accordance with these rules shall be governed by the provisions of W. Va. Code §29A-5-4 and §29A-6-1.~~

~~§42-18-14. Severability.~~

~~14.1. If any provisions of these rules or their application to any person be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the provisions or application of the rules which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or application, and to this end the provisions of these rules are declared to be severable.~~
